

Self-Reflection

Hannah Martin

Did the introduction / outline for the workshop provide a clear idea of what to aim for?

Yes, I felt I was easily introduced to each workshop through PowerPoints, visual representation and one-to-one talking with the teacher.

Was there enough direction / feedback provided?

Yes, I felt I could easily approach each tutor with any questions and queries regarding the workshop.

Was I aware that I could seek out and ask for advice if I required it?

Definitely! when it came to my final piece, I felt like I could easily approach the tutor I needed to help with further guidance and observations on what step to take next.

Which part of the workshop did I enjoy the most? Which part of the workshop did I least enjoy?

I mostly enjoyed the print and photography workshops! Having been used to both in my A2 Level studies, I used my skills to build upon my art in each class. I enjoyed creating the photobook in Frederik's class and was surprised by how neat the outcome was. I least enjoyed the gouache painting as I have always been a rubbish painter, but I have come to terms with that, however it was nice to try it again and the guidance from the tutor was very helpful.

In hindsight, were there aspects of the workshop that I could have handled better / improved upon? (Give examples)

Yes, I may have been more explorative with painting as I stuck to very blocked out shapes and may have been better suited to a more rhythmic and blended approach!

Were there activities in the workshop that provided transferrable experiences and skills which could have relevance to future and specialist disciplines? (For example, time management, preparatory and research work, thinking outside the box, pushing outside of comfort zones etc.)

Yes, I felt that the lens-based media workshop brought out a confidence in me to get in touch with my surroundings and build my creative mindset, asking those around me to participate in my videos and using random objects around me to create art.

Would I consider re-visiting this discipline area when it becomes an option in Semester 2?
(If so, specify)

Possibly! I thoroughly enjoyed both photography and print making and can see myself enjoying it further after Christmas!
