Dear Sir/Mrs,

In my pursuit for placement opportunities for next year, I was delighted to find the {UX Designer placement}, opening with {FinTru}. I am interested in the work you do. As an enthusiast interaction designer with knowledge and experience of UX design, I believe that I would make a brilliant addition to not only your team but the company.

I am inspired and driven, and I would be interested in this specific role you are offering at the present. Hopefully by working for you I would be able to gain valuable experience which will help set me up for future job opportunities. The skills I bring to the job is communication, time management, Figma, Microsoft products and willingness to work hard. I will do my best to give my all to the company through their day to day running and help where possible with the overall success. My goal is to learn as a work and hope this is something I will take on board.

For more information on my background and qualifications, please review the enclosed CV. I am eager to talk to you about this opportunity and thoroughly appreciate your consideration.

Yours Sincerely,
Sean Downey
